Synopsis

The book focuses on the chemical societies established all over Europe and the process and further development of these societies before World War I, and in exceptional cases up to 1930. The book offers unique historical material showing the social, intellectual and political circumstances in which the chemical societies were constituted and function, their relations to universities and chemical industries, everyday lives, international contacts, etc. This volume represents the first international comparative analysis on the beginnings of chemical societies in Europe based on a detailed historical research done by a group of renowned historians of chemistry from several countries.

The book is available to the following societies at a 35% discount rate!
