General Comments:

- Detailed curriculum vitae with publication activity, employment history, workplaces, etc. list are enclosed. It is welcome if the applicant presents in short basic data on him/her from Web-of-Knowledge or Scopus (number of communications, citations, h-index). All the attached information shall be in PDF format.
- I seek to register with the European Association for Chemical and Molecular Sciences as a European Chemist. I understand that the application and award binds me to adhere to the Code of Conduct (see the next page). I certify that the information given in this application and in any attachment is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that I will abide by the decision of European Chemist Registration Board in pursuance of this application.
- I agree with the fact that my personal data will be stored with the ECRB Secretariat. I confirm I am aware of the "Privacy Statement" published by EuCheMS according to the GDPR and of the fact I can any time ask the ECRB to withdraw my personal data from the Register by writing to the Secretariat. The personal data submitted in this form will be used solely for evaluation of the professional status of the applicant and further stored in the Register only.

EUROPEAN CHEMIST CODE OF CONDUCT

“European Chemists” have a duty:

- to observe any rules and regulations as may be determined by the European Chemist Registration Board
- to maintain the honour and dignity of the profession
- to conduct themselves honourably in the practice of their profession
- to have a special regard at all times to the public interest
- to maintain the highest standards of competence and integrity
- to have special regard to protection of the environment and to the safety of the public
- to apply to follow the European Code of Conduct when available.

European Chemists must bear a personal responsibility for their specific work and the information produced as a result. In doing so they must take account of any of the following objectives that may apply to their own field of activity:

1. Purpose:

To identify the purpose of any work envisaged, to ensure that it is necessary, useful and likely to succeed, and to consider the social, and environmental and economic consequences.

2. Planning:

To ensure that work to be carried out is identified, defined and scheduled in sufficient detail so that the objectives of the work will be met effectively and efficiently in a timely fashion.

3. Personnel:

To ensure that all work is carried out by personnel who are properly qualified and have appropriate knowledge, training and experience for the work in hand and are acutely aware of their scientific, supervisory and management responsibilities.

4. Information Management:

To ensure that all work carried out is completely, accurately and indelibly recorded at the time by the person concerned and that subsequent reporting and handling ensures its integrity and availability for as long as it may be required.

5. Materials:

To ensure that all materials, including samples, are identified, safely handled, used, transported, stored and distributed properly and that the appropriate information concerning them is available.

6. Equipment:

To ensure that all equipment is appropriate to the task in hand and is maintained and operated in such a manner that it performs to specification during use.

7. Location:

To ensure that any work is carried out in a facility or at a location which is appropriate to that work.

8. Management:

To utilise management systems that encourage and maintain the integrity of the work carried out by individuals.

9. Quality:

To ensure that work carried out is maintained at the highest standards of competence and integrity having special regard to the public interest.
